PLATFORM PLANKS BRING ON CONTESTS

Furious Warfare on The Prohibition Issue

13,000 CROWD IN HALL

Fourteen Candidates Now Before Convention—Woman Nominated Ambassador Davis.

Convention Hall, San Francisco, July 2.—With the prospect ahead of it of an all-night fight over the platform, the Democratic convention went into session again shortly after 8 o'clock last night.

Indorsement of the League of Nations, action or a dry or wet plank and the Irish question represented the fighting issues. Early indications pointed to acrimonious and lengthy debate as each of these planks in the platform is reached.

Furious warfare over the prohibition plank began yesterday in the platform committee of the convention, with every prospect that it would carried later to the convention floor. Leaving the subject until last because it was the most troublesome of all, the committee had made its decisions on the Irish question and the League of Nations and had cleared away all of the lesser controversies delaying its report.

But so long as prohibition remained in dispute, committee members agreed that their troubles were far from over 13,000 persons crowded into the convention hall yesterday morning. The immediate business was more nominating speeches. Those named so far were Senator F. M. Simmons, of North Carolina; Senator Carter Glass, of Virginia; John W. Davis, of West Virginia, Ambassador to Great Britain, and Francis Burton Harrison, Governor-General of the Philippines. The latter was placed in nomination by a woman delegate from the islands.

With the quarter named yesterday the convention now has before it a total of 14 candidates.

Seconding the nomination of Ambassador Davis, Mrs. Julia Brown, of West Virginia, included Mrs. Davis as a gracious lady, fully qualified in every way to undertake the duties of mistress of the White House, and placed her in the running along with her husband.

All factions have been canvassing the State delegations to determine the actual strength for each of the leading candidates. The returns do not agree, but the nearest to an impartial estimate obtainable showed that on the first ballot the strength of Palmer would be about 278, with McAdoo following with 274 and Cox in third place with 160.

This left 411 delegates scattered among the other eleven candidates placed in nomination.

MOTHER KILLS BABIES

Despondency, Due to Separation From her Husband, Given as Reason for the Tragedy

Chicago, July 2.—Despondency, due to a separation from her husband, is given as the reason Mrs. Margaret Emmerson yesterday slashed the throats of her three babies with a razor and then committed suicide by the same means. All four are dead.

Mrs. Emmerson, an attracitve young woman, had been separated from her husband for a year. Wednesday night a mysterious telephone call was received for her at her parent's home and she left, returning in three hours. Today neighbors heard the Emmerson children screaming and when they broke into the apartment found the baby boy in the bath tub, his throat cut from ear to ear. A four year old girl lay on the bedroom floor and an 8 year old boy beside her. The mother was found in the hall, gasping out her last breath.

New Branch to Chamber of Commerce to Meet Monthly

BOOSTING COMMITTEE

All Owners of Autos Members of Chamber Eligible to Membership and Outsiders May Also Join.

An automobile bureau of the chamber of commerce was organized last night at a meeting held in the rooms of that organization presided over by Julian Y. Williams, president of the chamber of commerce, who briefly outlined the aims and purposes of the new organization. The meeting was largely attended.

A permanent organization was effected with the election of J. E. W. Timberman, chairman and Carroll H. May, vice chairman. A committee was oppointed to arrange to have signs placed on all roads leading to Alexandria and a committee was appointed to confer with officials of the American Automobile Association with a view of having this branch of the association identified with that body.

All owners of automobiles who are members of the chamber of commerce are eligible to membership in this bureau and those who are not members of the chamber may join by making application to J. E. W. Timberman or J. T. Preston, the latter secretary of the chamber of commerce.

The meeting was adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

The following committee was appointed to co-operate with a committee already appointed by the Chamber to look after the advertising of Alexandria in the matter of signs for roads, etc.

Joseph E. Schwarzmann, Nelson T. Snyder and Llewellyn Dyson.

A motion was made and carried for a committee of three to be appointed to act as a publicity and boosting committee for the automobile bureau. This committee will be appointed by J. E. W. Timberman, chairman-director, during recess.

A communication was read from the Chicago Association of Commerce, which was referred to the Automobile Bureau by the Civic Bureau of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce on June 28. This matter was in regard to the unification of traffic laws governing the basic principles applying to the operation of vehicles, and submitting a proposed act relating to vehicular traffic throughout the U. S. A committee of seven was appointed to consider this matter, and if any difference of opinion should exist regarding any part of the proposed act, to communicate with the Chicago Association of Commerce regarding same. The committee follows: C. M. Horgan, C. W. Fletcher, Carroll H. May, John D. Matter, O. B. Swan, Wm. H. Hellmuth and R. R. Gillingham.

The secretary was instructed to communicate with the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles in Maryland and secure a supply of the Maryland laws governing automobile traffic, also, to secure copies of the District of Columbia laws.

The Secretary was instructed to secure, if possible two hundred applications for chauffeur licenses and two hundred copies of Motor Vehicle Laws of Virginia.

This bureau will hold its regular monthly meeting on the first Tuesday in each month.

GLASS'S FRIENDS ARE HOPEFUL

Virginians Plan Campaign in Case of a Dark Horse

IS ANYBODY'S FIGHT

Delegates From The Old Dominion Said to Have About Finished With William Jennings Bryan.

San Francisco, Cal., July 2.—The chances of Senator Carter Glass, of Virginia, for the presidential nomination, is not by any means an impossibility. Ten candidates had been placed in nomination at the session which lasted from 2 o'clock until far into the night, and to that time Mr. Glass was not named, but that the convention will, in all probability get into a tie-up is seen. Senator Glass has merely placed himself at the disposal of his party, a shrewd play at any angle from which it may be viewed. He and his leaders have taken pains not to antagonize any of the more formidable aspirants, and the sliding over to the Glass standard would not be a difficult matter. So when the break up comes, it will be well for the friends of Senator Glass to keep their eyes open and their ears to the ground.

At present it is anybody's fight, and there is no candidate who has the required two-thirds to secure the nomination. The prize is within the grasp of any of the men, but unless the "big leaders' manage to round up enough in the first five ballots there is no telling what will be the outcome.

Should it appear that Senator Glass has no show in the running, the Virginia delegation will split, and it is believed that the larger end will go to A. Mitchell Palmer, due to the fact that he served in congress with Con-

SHOT FROM AMBUSH

Prohibition Agent Led Into Trap by Bootlegger Friends and is Badly Wounded

Richmond, July 2.—Advices have been received at the office of the state prohibition commissioner of the wounding of M. T. Conner, a prohibition officer in Patrick county by moonshiners and bootleggers several days ago. Conner was on the hunt for bootleggers and received a tip from two men regarding the location of a still. These two men were friends of the moonshiners and were leading the officer into a trap, according to the information received here. They went where Conner was located and told him they would lead him to the still. He accepted the offer in good faith and started on the trip.

When the party had reached a lonely and dark recess in the mountains the men stopped, the report says, and asked the officer for instructions as to what to do when they reached the still to make the raid. While the officer was talking to them a shot was fired from ambush by one of the gang, the stop having been made at the designated point. Conner fell, with a bullet in his hip and another in his side. The two men made their escape and have not been seen since the shooting.

In making a report of the affair by wire Mr. Conner said that Henry and Abe Cassell were the men whom he was seeking to arrest, the officer declaring them to be bootleggers.

REVIEWS WORK DURING PAST MONTH

Chamber of Commerce Located Blue Ridge Manufacturing Co. Here

NATIONAL HIGHWAYS

Retailers Put Bars Down on Advertising in Programs and Also on Purchase of Tickets for Benefits Etc.

June is the month in which the tired business man begins to think about laying down for a while his business cares and take under consideration the question of a vacation either by the sad sea waves or the babbling brook of the mountain, where he may recuperate his health for the strenuous days ahead. The month of June is the month in which the Chamber of Commerce also calls off its meetings for the Summer months, except on special call of the chairman of a bureau.

The month has been one of unusual activity along many lines. The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors was held at 3.30 p. m. Tuesday, June 15th, instead of Monday the 14th, this latter date being Flag Day it was deemed expedient to postpone the meeting for one day in order that the day could be properly observed. The Chairman of the Finance Committee made his report to the Board of Directors and they were very much gratified to hear the good financial standing of the Chamber of Commerce. Through the efforts of the Chamber we have succeeded in locating the Blue Ridge Manufacturing Company in Alexandria, who manufacture work shirts. The gentlemen composing this firm are very reliable, financially and socially sound. The plant is already in operation and will shortly employ upward of a hundred employees (female). The firm is very much pleased with their surroundings and hope to be operating their plant at full capacity just as soon as they can get all the necessary machinery installed.

What we think has been a decided improvement to the exterior appearance of the Chamber of Commerce is the installation of lights on the posts on the portico outside of the club room. These lights are about 75 candle power and give a very brilliant light, in addition thereto the words "Chamber of Commerce" is painted on the globe so that no one can possibly fail to know where the Chamber of Commerce is. It is intended that these lights are to be a beacon to welcome the members of th e Chamber of Commerce, to welcome the stranger, to welcome the person in search of information and to welcome every activity that tends to the uplift of the community and make it a better place in which to live and thrive, and as an exchange says "A city is no bigger than its Chamber of Commerce. So get behind the organization that has for its aims the betterment of your home town as a dwelling place and the making of your city a center of activity with varied industries contributing to its prosperity and contentment."

The Board of Directors discussed the question of forming, as a part of the Chamber of Commerce, an automobile bureau to cope with the rapidly expanding business in this and kindred directions, and were unanimously in favor of it. They feel that it will fill a long felt need and will bring all automobile interests together for their mutual benefit, the Chamber of Commerce, automobiles, good roads, tourists and ship by truck movements go hand in hand and can best get results in the formation of a bureau as above mentioned. The President will doubtless call a meeting to consider this matter before this letter shall have reached you, and the bureau will become a recognized fact.

Just recently the War Department dispatched a motor transport convoy from Washington to Los Angeles over the Bankhead National Highway which will arrive in the latter city about September 17.

The Chamber of Commerce cooperated in this movement, the purpose of which is to assist in the development of a system of national highways by bringing before the pub-

TRAGEDY RECALLED

Thirty-nine years ago today James A. Garfield, President of the United States, was shot down by a fanatic, Charles Guiteau, in the Sixth street, (Washington) depot of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The President was mortally wounded, but he lingered until September before death closed the scene.

The issues which prompted the wold man to commit the murder has long been ancient history. Garfield had appointed Robinson, termed a political half-breed, to the important position of Collector of the Port of New York, which met with disfavor of Messrs. Conkling and Platt, at that time representing the Empire State in the Senate. They finally resigned, and sought justification by seeking re-election. Their course proved a failure, and others were selected to represent New York State.

Guiteau, who had long been a nuisance to his wife and friends, paraded himself as a "stalwart of the stalwarts," and imagined he was called upon to reunite the split in the republican ranks. He supposed that by killing the President the breach would be healed. After the commission of his act he made no attempt to escape, but surrendered to the police, his only fear being that he would be torn to pieces by a mob.

Several Alexandrians were in the Sixth street depot at the time of th assassination, and the news soon reached this city.

The trial of Guiteau took place in Washington, nearly a year after the tragedy, and the proceedings were witnessed by numbers of our citizens. The accused was sentenced to be hanged, and the order of the court was carried out.

Opinion has ever been divided as to the responsibility of Guiteau, some believing he was demented others that he was a victim of megalomania, and, like, Herostratus of old, who set fire to the temple of Diana at Ephesus, was anxious to get his name in history. This theory is probable.

HAMLET WITHOUT HAMLET

The Gazette's article on faithful city officials yesterday mentioned Auditor Price, Collector Gorman and City Treasurer Robinson, but in consequence of carelessness (this is the proper word) we omitted the name of Charles H. Callahan, another dean of the City Hall, he having been selected for the position of Commissioner of the Revnue in 1898. We had our notes at our elbow while writing the article, and Mr. Callahan's name was on the slip of paper. Hence we are inexcusable.

However, it reminds us of an incident in Odd Fellows' Hall, on north Columbus street, in 1895. The survivors of Mosby's command had gathered to participate in a banquet. Among the invited guests was the late Senator John W. Daniels. The Senator in his speech reviewed the cavalry commands in the service of the late Southern Confederacy. He mentioned daring leaders of the four years' struggle, but lost sight of the fact that one of the most noted (J. E. B. Stuart) won his spurs during the war. A friend nearby touched the Senator, and said "Stuart! Stuart!" Mr. Daniels paused, looked around and said: "Well, I am not the first person who has attempted to play Hamlet minus Hamlet." We must use the same means of defense resorted to by Virginia's silver-tongued orator on that occasion.

WORLD MOVEMENT QUITS

Not with any admission of failure does the executive committee of the Interchurch World Movement announce the abandonment of its great financial campaign. There were half a dozen or more reasons for ending it, Mr. Speers, chairman of the executive committee, declared, but he would give only one of them. The fact that there were too many similar drives going on at the same time—a reason which makes the action frankly a matter of popular psychology. Originally, the interchurch world movement proposed to direct the raising of $1,320,2114,551 for the work at home and abroad of the fifty-eight societies and boards which became parties to the movement. These boards represented 32 denominations. For the first year (1920) the budget called for $336,777,572, which was to be raised by a drive patterned closely upon liberty loan methods, between April 21 and May 2, last. At the close of this drive, however, it was discovered that only $176,000,000 had been secured, for of an expected $40,000,000 from "friends of the movement" chiefly those who did not have any particular church through which to give, less than $4,000,000 had materialized. Other misfortunes, such as the underwriting of past expenses, and the understanding of future, placed the movement in such a position that though the financial campaign proper was to terminate July 15, the "campaign of cooperation" was to continue till May, 1921. What, then, other than the existence of conflicting drives, induces the movement to abandonment of these plans, and spread the impression that the whole project is about to be wound up? The inference is that the withdrawal from the movement of the Baptist Church, North, which was voted at Buffalo last week, was an important factor, following, as it did, by less than a month, the withdrawal of the Presbyterian Church, North. Inasmuch as the resignation of all its executive officers has been accepted, the assumption is strong that the movement has terminated.—Richmond Journal.

gressman H. D. Flood and United States Senator Claude A. Swanson, both of whom are his strong personal friends. William Gibbs McAdoo will receive a few votes from the Virginians.

For vice president, Homer Cummings of Connecticut, the man who made the keynote speech of the convention, the speech that set the delegates wild and which was a severe arraignment of the Republican party and the foes of President Wilson, will be the first choice of the Virginia delegation.

Should it be shown that neither Palmer nor McAdoo will be able to come across with the vote necessary to put them at the top of the list then the Virginians will cast their ballots for Governor Cox, of Ohio. He may not suit them all, but, as the platform is expected to be a "little dewey" if not damp, the exigencies of the occasion may demand that the Ohio man shall carry the banner.

Virginia will stand for the platform as it comes from the committee, for the men in that delegation have so much confidence and faith in Senator Glass that they will stand solid for whatever he may report and advocate before the convention.

One thing is pretty plain; The Virginians have about finished with William Jennings Bryan, whom they have followed on many occasions and who is still undertaking to have the party accept his dictum in matters political.

VIRGINIA NEWS

While Loving Vass, of Richmond, was sitting on the front porch of his home Monday, his three year old daughter, Margaret, ran into a back room. A few minutes later the father was attracted by screams of agony. Running into the room he found the child's clothing ablaze and the victim of the accident a mass of flames. The little girl was so badly burned that a physician who treated the patient gave no hope for her recovery. The manner of the accident is unknown.

While crossing the tracks of Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad at Lorton, Mrs. Martha Murphy was struck by a southbound train and perhaps fatally injured. The engineer stopped the train and took the injured woman to Quantico, where she was given first aid treatment at the United States Marine Base Hospital and later was taken to Fredericksburg and placed in Mary Washington Hospital. She is suffering with a fractured skull, a badly lacerated arm and an injured hand.

Mrs. J. D. Smith, of Berea, was bitten by a large copperhead snake Sunday evening in Stafford county. She stepped on the snake which was coiled in her path. The reptile bit her on the ankle. Mr. Smith took his wife to the Mary Washington Hospital, Fredericksburg, where the wound was cut out and the poison extracted. Whisky was then administered to the bite to counteract the poison.

Youths as young as eighteen years old may now frequent poolrooms and engage in games there, Mayor Ainslie, of Richmond, it is announced, has affixed his official signature to the ordinance reducing the age limit from 21 years to 18.

Friends of Harry R. Houston, of Hampton, are to urge him to take a shot at the gubernatorial nomination. Mr. Houston was for two tarms speaker of the house, served for a long time in that body, and has been chairman of two state conventions in succession.

Earnest McGill, 19 years old, colored, from Richmond, is in jail at Burnham, Pa., charged with an attack upon the person of Grace Bumgardner, 9 years old. The child was on her way to a store when McGill enticed her to his shanty, where he lives alone, by the tender of 10 cents to buy candy. It was there the attack is alleged to have been made.

Rev. John McVerry, pastor of the Church of the Sacred Heart, Winchester, celebrated his golden jubilee mass, the first ever commemorated in the Richmond diocese Bishop Dennis J. O'Connell preached. Assisting Father McVerry were Rev. John Massey, Hopewell, deacon; Rev. William J. Meredith, Clifton Forge, subdeacon; Rev. Leonard J. Koster, Newport News, master of ceremonies. Many priests and prominenet churchmen from Virginia and Maryland were present. A large public reception was held in the afternoon in honor of Father McVerry.

Warning of a new counterfeit $5 note of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, has been issued by the Treasury Department. The spurious note is described as a very poorly executed specimen of the counterfeiter's art and one that should be easily detected. The titles of the Secretary of the Treasury, the Governor, Davis has been relieved of his call home and will remain and the "Treasurer of the United States," are omitted entirely from in San Francisco until the work of the fake note. convention is completed.

Clean-easy in the Clean-easy Way

WHY break your back over a wash tub? Why skin your knuckles on a scrubbing board? Why make washday a day of horrors?

You don't have to. Wash the easy Clean Easy way and washday goes by like a song! Honest, it's a regular eye-opener what that Clean Easy Naptholeine Wash Soap can do!

You simply boil your clothes in a tub of water with a half cake of Clean Easy, cut up and dissolved. Stir 'em a bit for ten minutes—and every garment comes out clean!

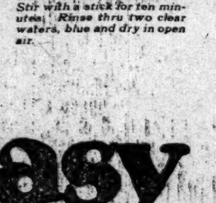
Can you beat that? Your washing is finished before your neighbor has scrubbed half her clothes. And it's a whole lot cleaner, too!

Clean Easy lasts longer, because it has a firm base and doesn't soften up like other soaps. Notice how different it looks. It is a truly wonderful preparation for cleaning and sweetening clothes.

Try it—now. Get a cake of Clean Easy and learn how to forget "blue" washday! Keep your health and sparkle instead of wasting it over a miserable wash tub! Ask your grocer for Clean Easy. One cake lasts two weeks.

Soak the clothes overnight if possible. If not, simply soak for a while in cold water.

Shave ½ bar of Clean Easy Naptholeine Soap into 4½ gallons of water. Boil, let it dissolve and put in the clothes.



Stir with a stick for ten minutes. Rinse thru two clear waters, blue and dry in open air.

lic, in an educational way, the necessity for such a system. An appropriate reception was given this convoy in Alexandria by a committee appointed for the purpose, and banners swung on the main streets, after the departure of the convoy from this city they were very handsomely entertained by the officers at Camp Humphreys. The Chamber of Commerce endorses good roads which is part of the answer to the present day methods of doing business, owing to the condition of our rail transportation methods, business men are looking more and more to the possibilities of shipping by truck which will partly solve the question of congestion in some sections.

At the last meeting of the Board of Directors a committee was appointed to look into the matter of advertising, this does not include the plan adopted by the Retail Merchants for the signs they want to put up, but will contemplate advertising Alexandria on a larger scale by compiling authentic historical data and information that will appeal to the prospective manufacturer who is looking for unexcelled adventages: it is proposed to put this material in pamphlet or book form and have it available in all the leading cities where all tourists motorists and business men can get first hand information about our city. The plan is sound and should be far reaching in good results.

The regular monthly meeting of the Retail Merchants Bureau was held Wednesday night, June 9th, at eight o'clock. The most important question discussed and acted upon was one that was in force in this bureau several years ago and related to the question of persons who solicit the sale of tickets for excursions, fairs, benefits and other similar entertainments. It was agreed upon that no tickets of this character would be bought unless the solicitor had the endorsement of a committee from the Retail Merchants. nor shall advertise in or on anything unless the proposition has the approval of the Special Committee, except newspapers, street cars, bill boards, theatre programmes, city directory, telephone directory and publications entered as second class matter, and no member shall offer a discount of any kind confirming an agreement taken by the Bureau, June 12. 1918, when the giving of discounts was discontinued.

Through the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce the matter of retaking the census was inaugurated and carried to a conclusion, figures were compiled and submitted to the Director of the Census for a check against his records, it was found that in the district canvassed that where on January 1st 644 persons resided that now there were only 579 persons which is partly accounted for by persons moving from one part of the city to another. We feel that we should be entitled to a larger population than that shown, but it is extremely difficult to reconcile the figures after a lapse of six months, however, be not discouraged other cities larger and more prosperous than our does not show the increase that our city does. New York City for instance, shows only an increase in her population of 17.9 per cent Alexandria shows about 23 per cent.

A SENSIBLE INVESTMENT

The most sensible way to invest your money is to keep your property in good condition and to have a home which will make your family comfortable and other buildings which will properly house your belongings.

You get the direct benefit from money invested in this way from day to day, in addition to the actual increase in the value of your property.

There have been some reductions in the price of lumber by the mills and we are reducing our prices to meet these, regardless of the cost of the different items we have in stock.

STRIKE BROKEN

Threat of Dismissal to Railroaders Start Freight Moving

Hagerstown, Md., July 2.—Following the ultimatum issued here Tuesday by President M. C. Beyers, of the Western Maryland Railroad, in which he stated that "unless the strikers returned to work on or before July 2 they would be considered dismissed from the service," thirty engineers, firemen, conductors and yardmen returned to their pre-strike work yesterday.

These men stated that they returned to work "rather than lose their jobs," and according to rail officials here and in Baltimore their return presages the ultimate breaking of the strike. It is considered probable that 80 per cent of the employes now "out" will be back to work by Friday.

Two large coal trains, fully manned, left here yesterday for Baltimore.

The Cumberland Valley Railroad, which is a part of the Pennsylvania system, refused to take back striking employes.

Albany, N. Y., July 1.—The refusal of officials of the Boston and Maine Railroad to reinstate Railway Detective Atchison caused 150 yardmen, switchmen and brakemen to go on strike here yesterday. Atchison was relieved from duty several weeks ago when in chasing car thieves he shot a brakeman in the leg.

Spray Preventol and destroy Bed Bugs, Roaches and Moths. May be freely sprayed on bed, mattress, etc. Will not corrod., rust or stain.

Special combination Sprayer and Pint Can in handy box saves you money. $1.25 at your dealer's. Additional fill cans: Pint, 60c; Quart, $1.00; Half Gallon, $1.75.
